From $899.00 Per Person in Double Occupancy. Includes Land Arrangements only. Please ask for our Airline Specials, too! Departures: Daily

Day 1 Home City - San Salvador

Meet and Greet upon arrival to San Salvador's International Airport, and Transfer to the Radisson Plaza Hotel or similar. Afternoon and evening free to stroll, shop and explore this charming capital city on your own.

Day 2 San Salvador - Suchitoto

Sightseeing Tour of the nation's capital city, San Salvador, and the colonial village of Suchitoto. Suchitoto is a historic and cultural city where it appears time stood still. Stroll its clean cobblestone streets enjoying its classic adobe houses, colonial architecture, cultural traditions and panoramic views of Lake Suchitlan. Includes a delicious Lunch in a typical Salvadorean restaurant. B L

Day 3 Cerro Verde National Park - Joya de Ceren - Coatepeque Lake

Sightseeing Tour to Cerro Verde National Park for panoramic views of impressive Izalco and Santa Ana Volcanoes. Izalco erupted almost continuously from 1770, when it was formed, to 1958 earning it the name "The Lighthouse of the Pacific". Santa Ana or Ilamatepec is the highest volcano in the country, its summit features four calderas and volcanic craters with the innermost containing a small crater lake. Continuing to Joya de Ceren archaeological village declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1993. Joya de Ceren was a pre-hispanic farming community that like Pompeii and Herculaneum in Italy was buried by a volcanic eruption ca. AD 600, and today provides a glimpse into the daily lives of the people at that time. Then continue to enjoy a delicious Lunch on the shores of Coatepeque Lake, a beautiful lake of volcanic origin. B L
